YOU'RE NOT ALONE.

Foreclosure is a serious problem affecting a growing number of Hoosier homeowners. In fact, all across America, nearly one million families are threatened with the loss of their homes each year.

Not being able to pay the mortgage is a frightening and upsetting situation. Maybe the cause is a sudden job loss. Or perhaps it's due to the expense of an unexpected health problem. Regardless, it's important to remember that falling behind on mortgage payments can happen to anyone.
